elementary linear algebra develops and explains in careful detail the computational techniques and fundamental theoretical results central to a first course in linear algebra this highly acclaimed text focuses on developing the abstract thinking essential for further mathematical study the authors give early intensive attention to the skills necessary to make students comfortable with mathematical proofs the text builds a gradual and smooth transition from computational results to general theory of abstract vector spaces it also provides flexible coverage of practical applications exploring a comprehensive range of topics ancillary list maple algorithmic testing maple.tutorial.maplesoft.com includes a wide variety of applications technology tips and exercises organized in chart format for easy reference more than 310 numbered examples in the text at least one for each new concept or application exercise sets ordered by increasing difficulty many with multiple parts for a total of more than 2135 questions provides an early introduction to eigenvalues eigenvectors a student solutions manual containing fully worked out solutions and instructors manual available the transition to upper level math courses is often difficult because of the shift in emphasis from computation in calculus to abstraction and proof in junior senior courses this book provides guidance with the reading and writing of short proofs and incorporates a gradual increase in abstraction as the chapters progress this helps students prepare to meet the challenges of future courses such as abstract algebra and elementary analysis clearly explains principles and guides students through the effective transition to higher level math includes a wide variety of applications technology tips and exercises including new true false exercises in every section provides an early introduction to eigenvalues eigenvectors accompanying instructor s manual and student solutions manual isbn 0 12 058622 3 provides solutions to odd numbered practice problems general problems and cumulative skills problems plus answers to review questions the primary purpose of this undergraduate text is to teach students to do mathematical proofs it enables readers to recognize the elements that constitute an acceptable proof and it develops their ability to do proofs of routine problems as well as those requiring creative insights the self contained treatment features many exercises problems and selected answers including worked out solutions starting with sets and rules of inference this text covers functions relations operation and the integers additional topics include proofs in analysis cardinality and groups six appendixes offer supplemental material teachers will welcome the return of this long out of print volume appropriate for both one and two semester courses this text is designed for an in depth course in trigonometry although the development of trigonometry begins on page one the authors realize that many students may have completed algebra and geometry courses some time ago therefore they have included algebra and geometry reminders throughout the text where they know from their teaching experience that many students need help in recalling ideas that are necessary to develop trigonometry while it assumes no previous knowledge of trigonometry this book shows how trigonometry can be used in many fields it also develops algebra skills so that students will be thoroughly prepared to continue their study of mathematics and science the use of graphing calculators has been incorporated throughout the text to reduce the labor of calculations and to expand the students understanding of concepts and give students the opportunity to explore relationships a student solutions manual is available for sale additionally an instructor solutions manual is available for teachers by emailing shirley grall mcgraw hill com
